

HOW-TO CONTACT THE NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR REFUGEES, MIGRANTS AND INTERNALLY DISPLACED PERSONS IN NIGERIA

Purpose

This document is intended to provide information for individuals, government officials and non-governmental organizations (NGOs) that wish to access and request the cooperation of the NCFRMI.

Background Information

The National Commission for Refugees, Migrants and Internally Displaced Persons (NCFRMI) is a federal government commission established to cover issues related to internally displaced persons (IDPs) and the coordination of migration and development within Nigeria. In addition, the commission is responsible for protecting and assisting refugees, asylum seekers, returnees, stateless persons, IDPs and migrants. The commission has the powers to do the above listed through resettlements—providing durable solutions, rehabilitation, care and maintenance for persons of concern in Nigeria.

Scope

Federal-level within Nigeria.

Contact Details

Name: National Commission for Refugees, Migrants and Internally Displaced Persons

Website: <https://www.ncfrmi.gov.ng/>

Email: nfo.ncfrmi@ncfrmi.gov.ng

Phone-Number: +(234) 874 856 6666

Office Address (same as Mailing Address):

The Federal Secretariat Complex, 2nd Floor, Phase 1 Shehu Shagari Way,
Maitama